Reading Improvement Plan

- One of the most common terms we hear today is “fake news.”
- The public and politicians use it to talk about the news reports they do not think are accurate.
- <https://learningenglish.voanews.com/a/news-literacy-introduction-news-through-time/4387984.html>

- Today, information moves around us in many forms, every hour of every day. Even if we do not seek out news on our own, we often receive it anyway, instantly, on our phones.
- So how can we manage this mountain of information so that fake news does not mislead us?
- <https://learningenglish.voanews.com/a/news-literacy-introduction-news-through-time/4387984.html>

- We believe this requires news literacy.
  - News literacy is the ability to use critical thinking skills to judge news reports.
  - Are they credible? Can you rely on the reports to be true?
