Proverb

- A proverb is a short, well known saying that expresses a common truth or belief.
 - Proverbs are found in most cultures and are often very old.

- In American history, Benjamin Franklin was famous for his proverbs. Franklin lived in the 1700s. He was a leader of the American Revolution against English rule. He was also a scientist, inventor and writer.

- Another proverb is true in love and war or other situations: “Actions speak louder than words.”
It means that what you do is more important than what you say.
